

Piazza della Vergogna (Palermo) - The Square of Shame (Palermo)

S.I.A.B. CONFERENCE 1-3 JUNE 2018

I am pleased to announce the next conference of the Italian Society of Bioenergetic Analysis (S.I.A.B.) on the theme The unexpected guest: shame and body that will take place from 1st to 3rd June 2018.

Our international guest will be Janina Fisher, who will present a speech and a workshop on the first day (1 June). Janina Fisher is a psychologist and psychotherapist, vice-director of the Sensorimotor Psychotherapy Institute; she worked at the Trauma Center founded by Bessel van der Kolk and her book Healing the Fragmented Selves of Trauma Survivors: Overcoming Internal Self-Alienation was recently published.

It will be possible to attend only Fisher's presentation and her workshop, and also another workshop (in English) presented by Paola Bacigalupo, IIBA BOT member, and Cristiana Battistuzzi on Saturday 2 June at the cost of euro 120.00. In addition, people not speaking Italian, could attend other conference's works (E.C. and workshops with the help of Italian colleagues for the translation), at the same cost of euro 120.00!

The location is near the sea, in Palermo, a city that has been named "World Capital of Culture 2018". The structure, Torre Normanna, has already hosted an IIBA conference and is excellent for combining a beautiful and relaxing holiday!

For more information on conference registration and hotel reservation you can write to: mail@siab-online.it

We wait for you in Sicily.

On behalf of the Siab Board of Directors
Patrizia Moselli